

Welcome to Miss Oddette's BBQ Sauce

Dear Valued Customer,

Happy Holidays to you and your loved ones. Miss Oddette's has had the great pleasure of providing the best family recipe BBQ sauce ever. It is with great regret that I must inform you that it will only be available while the current limited supply lasts. At this time No Joke is sold completely out and there are a limited number of cases of Special Report. Cases are still $50.00 plus shipping for 12 – 19oz. jars.

I am and have been experiencing rather serious health challenges that require my undivided attention and significantly reduced stress levels, which is my reason for making such a drastic decision.

If you would like to make a final purchase please send an email to missoddettes@yahoo.com with the quantity of Special Report you would like and your address. I will send a paypal invoice by email and ship the Special Report.

Again many thanks for being my valued customer and supporter. Please keep me and my family in your thoughts and prayers.

Miss Oddette

My grandmother “Granga” made BBQ sauce during the Depression Era out of love for her children. She wanted to provide them with something they wanted but could not afford to buy. What she made was so wonderful that everyone preferred her sauce over anything they could purchase. It was out of love that she taught me to make the sauce. In her own way she nurtured me in nurturing others through our preparation of food. She knew that I would continue to provide her family with the BBQ sauce she created long after her physical presence ended. Now it is out of that same love that I share our BBQ sauce with you and your family. My only hope is that you enjoy it as much as we have and that it contributes to memorable times and traditions.
